

Transfer Guide for Gateway Technical College 2008-2009 Course Catalogue Articulation

A Gateway Technical College Associate Degree is highly recommended for transfer to Robert Morris College with junior standing.

Robert Morris University will accept credit from an accredited institution on a course-by-course basis. Courses that are less than 100 level, remedial, or developmental will not transfer. Courses accepted for transfer must be comparable to those taught at Robert Morris College and must be recognized by Robert Morris College as generally being applicable toward an Associate or Baccalaureate degree. RMC upper division general education courses are fulfilled during the completion of the upper division graduation requirements.

No more than 140 quarter hours (93 semester hours) will transfer to Robert Morris College toward Baccalaureate degree requirements.
